

Your Chance to Create the Future

ParentCamp Corning

A unique experience for 5th grade parents and middle school educators from the CPP School District.

SATURDAY JUNE 16, 2018
9:00AM-12:00PM

ParentCamp is a form of unconference designed specifically to bring parents and educators together to talk about things that matter most to them. We would like to invite you to come enjoy a morning of discussion and learning. This is an opportunity for us to hear your perspective, ideas and questions around your child's future middle school experience.

The morning will begin with a brief overview of Google Classroom. At 9:30, attendees can choose from a variety of sessions that cover such topics as transitioning to middle school, becoming a connected parent, navigating common core standards and making a home-school partnership.

To help us plan this exciting opportunity, please RSVP to Sarah Ainsworth Assistant Principal (654-2801 or sainsworth@cppmail.com) by June 8.

What to expect:

- The discussion leader sits among the group members to lead the discussion.
- The expertise and experience "of the room" is harnessed from the start of the session.
- Face-to-face perspective sharing leads to relationship-building, networking and a sense of "we're all in this together."

Do you have questions about middle school?

Do you want to have conversations with those who will be educating and caring for your children?
